NEXT STEPS

- Please ensure all details on this form are correct.
- A number of units have pre-requisites which may be met by the units you have already done at your home institution. It is therefore important that you provide an up to date academic record.
- Applicants should be aware that quotas apply to many units and there is no guarantee that enrolment will be available in the unit(s) of your choice. It is therefore advisable to return this form together with supporting documentation as soon as possible.
- You may only be admitted to a maximum of four units for the academic year (that is two units per semester)
- Full fee paying international students enrolled at Australian universities are welcome to apply to enroll for credit transfer to their home institution.

Documents to provide:

Please upload the following documents to your MyAdmission application

- Academic Transcript/s
- Proof of your Commonwealth Assistance (HECS) status at your home institution. If you are a HECS based student and you do not provide a certified copy of your latest HECS notice from your home institution you will be charged the differential rate of HECS.
- A copy of this completed form.
- Approval from your home institution.

How to upload the documents:

Step 1: Log into the MyAdmission portal using your Applicant ID and password. If you have forgotten your login details, click the 'Recover your details' option.

Step 2: Click on the "Document Upload" button.

Step 3: Attach the required documents and/or information.

Step 4: Click on the "Upload File" button.

If you are unable to submit your application online, you can submit a hardcopy application in person or by post to:
